

EUROPEAN LEADERSHIP PROGRAMME

For hearts and minds to navigate the challenge

The European Leadership Programme (ELP) is a five month long formation Programme where the Fellows receive leadership training and support in their vocation discernment during their time in Brussels. The Fellows live and work in the heart of Europe, as trainees or young professionals working in Brussels. They help marginalized communities, receive coaching and professional mentoring.

Our Fellows are highly qualified and motivated trainees and young professionals with diverse backgrounds. The ELP recruitment process focuses on the diverse backgrounds, perspectives, abilities, and experiences of the Fellows. The ELP creates opportunities for discussion and dialogue and encourages the personal reflection of each Fellow.

SEGMENTS OF THE PROGRAMME:

LEARNING

To deepen prior knowledge on EU issues on a pragmatic basis, offering insights to leaders' testimonies via workshops and guest speakers.

POLITICS

To be immersed in the administrative and political life of the EU institutions due to having the opportunity to meet with political leaders in Brussels and beyond.

SERVICE

Walking with the poor: voluntary experience by serving marginalized communities to enhance sensitivity towards social justice.

COACHING

Executive coaching and Ignatian spirituality - learn to discern on your vocation for the common good.

COMMUNITY

Living in a community with other Brussels-based professionals, forging lifelong friendships and professional connections.

GLOBAL SOUTH FELLOWSHIP

The European Leadership Programme (ELP)

The University Centre Saint-Ignatius Antwerp (UCSIA) and the University Foundation for Development Cooperation (USOS) offer a fellowship to the European Leadership Programme (ELP).

The ELP is a five-month leadership programme where the Fellows are required to do full time traineeship in EU institutions or in the EU ecosystem, like UCSIA. Besides the work experience, they receive leadership formation, take part at fireside chats with leaders and are offered personal coaching and professional mentoring.

UCSIA and USOS are both non-profit organizations focusing on issues of social justice who want to contribute to a more just society through education, cooperation with civil society organizations and academic institutions in the Global South and academic research. For that purpose, UCSIA and USOS work closely together with the University of Antwerp. We are looking for a motivated candidate from the Global South. The selected candidate will start from March 1st 2022 onwards for a 12 month assignment. The candidates shall attach two recommendation letters with contact details of the referees to their application.

TASKS:

1) Support USOS in facilitating the recently initiated multilateral network of partners in DR Congo, India, Morocco en Nicaragua by:

- Promoting further acquaintance among the partners (online)
- Identifying the needs of the partners (research, education, outreach)
- In consultation with stakeholders, find out how an online multilateral collaboration can be meaningful for all participating partners, and this within the possibilities of USOS.

2) Follow-up on the Global pen pals project of USOS. This project allows students from different partner universities of USOS to correspond with each other on topics related to the Sustainable Development Goals.

3) Cooperate with the UCSIA staff for planned activities within the programme 'Europe and Solidarity'.

4) Develop your own project within the fields of social economy, ecology, social justice from a European policy perspective and organize a public event on the chosen topic.

PROFILE:

- Research skills in academic context.
- Good organisational and communication skills. Proactive attitude.
- Experience in international cooperation and project management is an asset.

DEADLINE: 12 December 2021
